The Art Advisory Committee, who made the selections for this show, is a committee appointed by the library trustees to advise in gallery matters. Committee members are: Mrs. Harold Bush-Brown, Patrick Dudensing, Richard Hasty, Leo Prince, Frank Rogers and Mrs. Daniel Sangster.

Members Exhibit Continues

An interesting exhibition is currently showing in the gallery in the Duxbury Free Library, open through July during library hours.

This collection is sponsored and arranged by the advisory committee of the Helen Bumpus Gallery. The Rev. Richard Hasty, chairman of the committee, is showing a piece of sculpture entitled, "Sand Castles." Other examples of sculpture are: "A Dog's Head," Dr. James Peters Jr.; "Figure," Genevieve Thomas; "Bobbie," Dr. Sidney Wiggin.

The painters represented are as follows: Tura Bengtz, "The Marsh"; Charles Bittinger (who founded the Duxbury Art Association in 1916 and was the first president), "Interior: the King Caesar House"; Marjorie Bush-Brown, "Victorian Sofa"; Mildred Collins, "Still Life"; G. Conally, "Blossoms"; Esther Conant, "Abstract"; Roberta Cutler, "Winter Marshes"; Frances Fish, "Abstract"; Yvonne Kendall, "Landscape"; Robinson Murray, "Abstract"; Geraldine Powell, "Transitions in Green"; Leo Prince, "Abstract"; William Rathbun, "Portrait"; Frank Rogers, "Shrubs"; Betsey Ross, "Market Day"; Helen Seymour, "Garden of Graham Winslow" (loaned by Mr. Winslow); Julia Smith, "Winter Landscape"; Gay Youse, "Trees."

CLIPPER, THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1969

The punch served at the July 29 opening was served by Mrs. Robert Ross, assisted by Mrs. Fred Whiskin. Mrs. George Kendall (Yvonne), arranged the beautiful flowers picked from her own garden.

Among the appreciative onlookers were Dr. and Mrs. H.C. Bumpus Jr., escorted by Dr. Sidney Wiggin. Also present was Mrs. Walter Beckford, whose generosity, in honor of her deceased husband, made possible the adjoining handsome Adult Reading Room.

The Advisory Committee sponsoring this second exhibition of local artists, which lasts through July, is made up of the following: Mrs. Harold Bush-

Brown, Patrick Dudensing, the Rev. Richard Hasty, Leo Prince, Frank Rogers, Mrs. Daniel Sangster, Mrs. Richard Neubauer, librarian and Gay Youse Director of the gallery.
